

2023 COMPETITION

Break out those Christmas lights and unleash that Holiday Spirit.

All Metro Council District 23 residents are invited to decorate and participate in the Holiday Lights for Hope Contest.

Is your house already decorated? Sign up at holidaylights23.com by December 15.

It's easy. After you finish decorating, take a picture after sunset, fill out the entry form at holidaylights23.com, upload your picture, and submit. That's it! You will be registered for Holiday Lights for Hope AND eligible for a very nice prize.

On December 20th, all contestants' entries will be on display in our Gallery of Lights, where friends and family can go and "LIKE ♥" their fav AND influence the Judges' vote.

There is
NO entry fee!

Shine hope into someone's life. Gift the Nashville Rescue Mission for Christmas.

The Award Categories

Clark Griswold - For Best Amateur Display
Buddy The Elf - For Most Unique Display
Cheekwood "Wanna-Be" - For Most Professional Display

Saturday Evening Post - For Best Holiday Lights Overall

MVB - Most Votes Bestowed by neighbors

The Winners will be announced on December 27.

AND, there's MORE:

On December 2nd Santa's Firetruck Tour returns, but this time, WITH a parade. Introducing the Belle Meade Christmas Parade — a new fun-tastic mix of music, marching band, floats, T-Rac, and the GRRRRINCH. Sirens will be BLARING, red lights GLARING, the Grinch PROWLING, and the parade PARADING. Want to know more? Go to www.holidaylights23.com/santa-alert for times, dates, and details.

Sign up at holidaylights23.com by Dec.15